

CENTRAL REGION INSTRUCTOR TRAINING WEEK

Version 8

June 14th to June 18th 2026 in London, Ontario

Cost: $500 CTCA Members; includes accommodation and meals

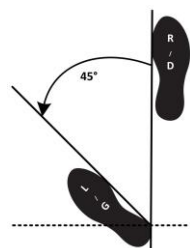

The workshop starts on Sunday at 9 am and runs through to Thursday at 12:30 pm. The Central Region Instructor Training Workshop is open to all Beginner and Continuing Instructors. Also, all CTCA members who are actively training to become an instructor (Beginner Instructor In-Training or Continuing Instructor In-Training) may also attend the workshop. Members who assist instruction (corners, set leaders, etc.) may also attend. CTCA Members who actively support administration of the location are welcome to attend. Non-members are welcome to attend at a cost of $750.

All instructors in the Central Region may apply for a subsidy to cover travel costs to attend the workshop. The workshop will be led by senior instructors from the Central Region.

The focus of the workshop is on improving the Tai Chi of the attendees as well as their instruction skills. There will be two streams to train beginner instructors and continuing instructors to teach the Arts from the Mr. Moy tradition. There will be a variety of different break-out sessions that are part of the program that you can attend in the evening.

All CTCA members attending will pay the flat rate of $500 for the workshop. If a member is not staying at the conference centre or is providing their own food (special dietary needs), the workshop fee is decreased by 50%. If a member cannot afford the workshop fee, they may apply for a discount to the workshop fee. There is no single day rate. The final day to submit your registration is: June 1st 2026. Pre-registration is required.

There is a workshop on the weekend following the Instructor Training Workshop (Lok Hup Ba Fa Workshop Part II June 18th to June 20th). All workshops will be held at the Fanshawe College Conference Centre in London, Ontario. The workshop will be held in the gymnasium at the college. All meals are prepared by the college hospitality program with the accommodation making use of the student housing located a short walk from the dining hall and gymnasium. Visit the London website for workshop details.
